Dear Hiring Manager

My name is Muhamad Fajri Majid, a recent graduate of Ahmad Dahlan University, majoring in Informatics study. I am highly interested to apply for Quality Assurance Engineer. After reviewing the job description, it's clear that you are looking for person who is skillful in automation testing. I am truly sure that my skills fit what company needs. As my background in Informatics, I possess excellent skill in automation software such as Katalon, Jmeter, Postman, Cypress, and programming language such as HTML, C++, PHP, and many more.

I am a painstaking in testing software, conducting research, and innovation that is shaped with strong analytical skill, excellent communication, and problem solving supported with amount of experiences in public speaking and scientific writing competitions locally and internationally. My superior skills are proven by achieving many awards in the national and International event. These achievements led me to be titled as the most outstanding students among 29.000 undergraduate student in the fields of independent reasoning and creativity (Mahasiswa Berprestasi Bidang Penalaran dan Kreativitas Mandiri), Andalan Award 2023. These immense motivations and experiences of mine will be used to give positive contribution towards your company.

Thank you for considering my application. I hope there will be positive feedback from your company.

Sincerely,

Muhamad Fajri Majid
